

SALESMAN IS FOUND GUILTY IN FRAUD CASE

Warren M. Garrison, Chambersburg salesman, was found guilty by an Adams County jury Thursday afternoon of fraudulently converting to his own use a check made out to his company.

Immediately after the verdict was reached, the court gave Garrison a suspended sentence and placed him on probation for six months on condition he pay $100 for the use of the county and the costs.

Garrison was accused of visiting Robert L. Baker at Baker's New Oxford service station last November as a representative of the Consolidated Paint and Varnish Corporation of Cleveland, O.

Garrison sold Baker a quantity of a material to be placed on the driveway at the garage to melt ice, and received from Baker a check for $45.10 made out to the Cleveland concern in payment for the material.

According to the testimony at the trial Thursday afternoon, Garrison then cashed the check and used the money for repairs to his car. Later Garrison paid the amount of the check.

The jury hearing the charge, headed by Roy Anderson, East Berlin R. D. farmer, entered the jury room to consider its verdict at 4:38 o'clock, and returned with the decision at 5:05 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Three others appeared before the court for sentence late Thursday afternoon.

James Howard Champlain, 19, Gettysburg R. 3, charged with jail breach in connection with his escape, with two companions, from the Adams County jail about a month ago, was returned to White Hill, a juvenile correctional institution, for an indeterminate sentence. Champlain had been on parole from that institution and will thus face a parole violation charge. The court left it at the discretion of state officials as to how much time he will serve.

Wood, Seven Stars, a member of the faculty of Gettysburg College in the psychology department and a specialist in family relations, was the speaker at the annual mothers and daughters banquet of the Business and Professional Women's Club of the YWCA held at the Methodist Church Thursday night.

The University of Chicago, she said, is doing research on the matter now. She touched on love from the Sigmund Freud angle and then from the Christian viewpoint, suggesting that 1 Cor. XIII be re-read using "understanding" instead of the word "love."

She concluded with the statement that only a mother really knows love and read a poem by Edgar A. Guest with this viewpoint.

Mrs. Wood, the daughter of a Presbyterian minister and a graduate of Penn State and Columbia, came to Adams County in 1917 when the Woods bought a farm here. They later lived in New York for a number of years and have now returned to this county. She has six married children and 21 grandchildren.

Escaped Mental Patient Attacks Major With Ax

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A man who had escaped from a mental hospital fulfilled an obsession to attack a serviceman Thursday by hacking at a passing army major with a hatchet.

As Riggins fell, crying "Oh, My God," Heckel plunged a knife into his own stomach and fell beside his victim.

Riggins was in critical condition, but doctors said his chances for recovery were good, although he might be partially paralyzed from brain damage.

GIVES TALK ON MIDDLE EAST AT COLLEGE

"Through three thousand years of history the Middle East has been highly significant in the history of the human race," said Dr. Laurens H. Seelye, 28, a professor in Lebanon and Turkey and a former president of St. Lawrence College, Canton, N. Y., in a lecture Thursday on "The Middle East, Grandmother of the Western Tradition" in Christ Chapel at Gettysburg College.

"When we talk about the Middle East we are talking about our own cultural ancestors who have helped make the western world what it is. Today we see a struggle between Egypt's Nasser and Iraq's Kassem which revives an ancient rivalry between the two fresh water areas of the Nile and the Tigris and Euphrates rivers. Today the Middle East is a focus of global attention," he said.

Ancient Events

"But also the Middle East is tied up with ancient events that are very significant to us, events influenced by Abraham, Moses, the Hebrew prophets, Jesus, St. Paul and Mohammed. Here at the junction of three continents emerged three monotheistic (one God) religions—Judaism, Christianity, and Islam—which over the centuries have waged a terrific ideological struggle. As a result, polytheism (many gods) has disappeared from the western world while it has not disappeared from parts of Asia.

"The rational prediction upon which modern science is based would be impossible with the pluralistic spiritism of polytheism. These three religions have set western civilization free from superstitious spiritism," he declared.

SURVIVORS OF BLIMP CRASH TO BE QUIZZED

LAKEHURST, N. J. (AP)—Survivors of Thursday's fog-shrouded blimp crash will be questioned today by a navy board of inquiry to try to learn the cause of the mishap.

Meanwhile, three of the 18-man crew lay in critical condition in military hospitals at Ft. Dix and in Philadelphia. One of the blimp's officers was taken dead from the wreckage after rescuers worked five hours to free him.

The wreckage of the blimp's car and its tattered gas bag was still draped over the roof of a 150-foot hangar. The blimp struck the structure as it was trying to gain altitude after being waved off from a night instrument landing.

The Naval air station here was blanketed by a murky fog at the time. The gondola car of the 343-foot long blimp smashed a hole in the hangar roof and became stuck high above the ground, part inside and part out.

The body of Lt. (jg) David M. Loyd of Vega, Texas, was found pinned near his bunk in the gondola. Rescuers had to cut their way through the entangling folds of the bag and then use air saws on the gondola wreckage to reach Loyd.

The critically injured were Lt. (jg) Richard W. Sirch, of Flushing, N.Y., commander of the blimp; Lt. Robert Ecoff of Brunswick, Ga., and aviation mechanic Lt. Larry J. Cranston of Westbury, N.J.

Ecoff was the pilot. Cranston and Ecoff were in critical condition at Ft. Dix Army Hospital with broken legs and facial and body injuries. Sirch was critical but improving at Philadelphia Navy Hospital with severe lacerations.

The other members of the crew suffered cuts and bruises. Three were hospitalized but were not seriously hurt.

FOREST FIRES ON INCREASE

Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard said today that over 600 forest fires have been reported in the state as of May 1.

"This means that so far 1959 is running slightly ahead of the average for the past five years," Goddard stated. "However, public cooperation during the next few weeks of May can still make the spring fire season no worse than average."

The Forest and Waters secretary commented that "even following a general rain, two days of warm weather can turn a forest into a tinder box ready to blaze up at the touch of one careless match or cigarette."

"Weekends, in particular, are dangerous because of the number of people who use our park and forests," he added. "Only by refraining from smoking in the open, using car ash trays, and by abstaining from building camp fires and trash and debris fires can we preserve intact our great timber resource, the game it shelters, and the soil it protects."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rufus J. Hawkins, 26, one of the three men who escaped from Moyamensing Prison April 30, has been sentenced to 25 to 75 years in Eastern State Penitentiary for burglary.

The 26-year-old Hawkins and three other men pleaded guilty Thursday to a series of burglaries in Philadelphia and suburban communities—including the theft of Police Commissioner Thomas J. Gibbons' service revolver from his home.

Judge Edward J. Griffiths also sentenced James A. White, 26, of Philadelphia, to 15 to 45 years, Ewing Harpst, 21, the Bronx, N.Y., to 3 to 10 years, and Thomas Rolinson, 24, and John Gangloff, 27, both of Philadelphia, to 18 months to five years.

Hawkins and two others escaped from Moyamensing by hacking their way through the ceiling of their cell, squirreling through an air vent to the roof, and sliding down bed sheets from the top of the 40-foot high prison wall. One of the trio is still at large.

Brooding Maine Merchant Kills Wife And Cop Before He Suicides After Battle

By GORDON A. GLOVER
LIMERICK, Maine (AP)—A brooding businessman shot and killed his wife and then killed a police chief and wounded two state troopers before his suicide ended a five-hour gun battle with nearly 100 officers Thursday night.

Gordon E. Hamlin, 51, upset over the recent loss of his furniture manufacturing business, shot himself as police closed in on his cellar holdout with bullets and tear gas.

Also dead were Hamlin's wife, Rose, 46, and Westbrook Police Chief Pierre Harnois, 34, both killed by shotgun blasts.

Quiet Maine Crossroad
State Trooper Stephen A. Regina, 42, of Saco, was critically wounded by Hamlin's shotgun in the stomach and leg.

Trooper Willard Parker was less seriously wounded on both arms and abdomen. The scene of the blistering shooting was a quiet Maine crossroads settlement by an old mill pond about a mile from the center of Limerick, a village of 1,000 population 30 miles east of Portland.

Killed Wife First

Witnesses and police pieced together this story:
At 4:15 p.m. as Rose Hamlin crossed the street to visit Mrs. Jessie Mitchell, Hamlin shouted to her from his front door and fired once with a shotgun.

As Mrs. Hamlin raced up the front steps of the Mitchell home, Hamlin fired again and his wife fell mortally wounded on the porch.

COOL SNAP HITS SOME SECTIONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mid-May cool snap chilled most of the eastern half of the nation today and cooler air also spread into some western sections. Anchorage, Alaska, was warmer this morning than St. Louis and Louisville, Ky., and almost as warm as Atlanta, Ga., as the cool Canadian air dipped into the southland.

Chilliest weather was in the north central region with temperatures in the 30s from the Dakotas eastward into sections of Illinois and Indiana.

The cold air which advanced southward dropped temperatures into the 40s in New England to the 50s and low 60s in the Gulf states. The readings were 7 to 15 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier. Frost was indicated from New England to the North Carolina mountains.

Only other wet spots were in the Pacific northwest and in New Mexico and the Texas panhandle. Fair and warm weather continued in the far Southwest but it was cooler along the Pacific coast.

Got Both Barrels

"He greeted me with both barrels of the gun," Parker said.

Although wounded, Parker radiated for reinforcements and stayed to assist arriving troopers, city police and game wardens.

The officers stationed themselves behind their cruisers and in houses on each side of Hamlin's home, firing with rifles and pistols.

They could see Hamlin from time to time ducking from one window to another as he fired his shotgun.

Ex-FBI Agent Slain

Harnois, a former FBI agent and Westbrook's first full-time police chief, was killed as he raced toward the house with a tear gas bomb in his hand.

Regina was shot as he approached the house from the opposite side.

When darkness fell, searchlights were brought to the scene to light up the Hamlin house.

At one point, a tear gas grenade set fire to the roof. Firefighters put out the small blaze and then trained their hoses into a basement window where Hamlin now was holed out.

Suicide In Cellar

Today's Talk

PROGRESS THROUGH DISCOVERY

What a stupendous debt we owe to pioneers — those who have opened up the way ahead, inspiring us to follow their lead. Many a bloody trail has been left behind by those who had courage and vision, and who never had the thought of turning back.

And so we are free, with a great country and a challenge to our faith and aspiration. Pioneers, the ones who went, and formed paths to unknown lands beyond the prairies, mountains and forests — and always in the face of danger. It was the age of the covered wagon and of stalwart hearts. Those who braved the way never counted the cost. They often left friends and all behind, for they were heavy with dreams!

But there are other pioneers — in medicine, science, electricity, and literally thousands of other pioneering projects. We are constantly having our attention turned to some new gadget or invention. Ideas keep multiplying. Progress is made through discovery.

Often we are pioneers and don't know it. But when we realize the fact, the sooner we get on our way the better. The pioneer has no schedule. He is in the hands of God, which gives to him the security of his prayers. Pioneers are brave but they get lonesome. A man asked one of Admiral Peary's companions what he thought of up there in that desolate North Pole climate when Peary discovered the North Pole for the first time. "What did we think? We did not think. Peary was with us. He did the thinking for us!"

Dare to pioneer. Others have done it. You can do it. We all can do it! Progress through discovery.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "What Is Life About?"

Just Folks

THE ROAD TO RUIN
The Road to Ruin! Ah, there's a path

That is easy enough to find;
You can stumble onto it anywhere,
And many who do are blind.
They headlong rush in the hope, maybe,
That far at the end they'll meet
The man who's guarding the Gates to Fame,
But always they find defeat.

The Road to Ruin is strewn with flowers
And lined with the joys of earth;
The sound of revelry there you hear,
But nothing of lasting worth.
It's bright enough, and it's gay enough,
Its pavements are smooth to tread,
But far at the end of it you will find
The bones of the early dead.

PLAN REPLAY OF COLLEGE GAME IN 1859

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) — Sideburns, slender bats and 13-man teams will prevail Saturday when Amherst and Williams turn back the clock 100 years for a replay of the first intercollegiate baseball game.

Besides the original costumes and the now-strange rules, there'll be something else to take folks back to great granddad's day — a chess match.

That's the way it was July 1 and 2, 1859 at Pittsfield, Mass., when the schools played off the challenges they'd swapped.

As the Amherst Express put it a century ago:

"Williams and Amherst

"Baseball and chess

"Muscle and mind."

One thing won't be the same.

Baseball Commissioner Ford

Frick and other assembled digni-taries will be treated to an abbreviated form of the original game which Amherst won 73 to 32 after 3½ hours and 26 innings.

Meanwhile three-man squads will match wits nearby in chess.

Amherst took the 1859 version by forcing the Williams players to throw in their kings on the 48th move.

It all began on a spring morning at the Amherst chapel when a group of students decided to challenge Williams to a baseball match. Williams accepted and offered a return challenge in chess.

The prevailing rules to be demonstrated Saturday include 13 players to a side, only one out to a team's time at bat, a tiny, two-ounce ball, bats not much thicker than a broom handle and a 60-foot square infield. There was no foul territory so a hit could be made in the direction of the catcher.

LEAGUE LEAD IN REACH FOR CHICAGO SOX

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The suddenly hot Chicago White Sox steam into New York's Yankee Stadium tonight for the opener of a two-game series that could hoist them into the American League lead and plunk the world champions into the cellar.

A week ago, the White Sox lost their fifth in a row, but now they've won six straight after a sweep of three at Boston. The streak began when they won the last three in a four-game set with Cleveland and it's carried them within a half-game of the first place Indians, who have been idle the past two days.

The White Sox could take the lead by (1) coupling a sweep over the Yankees with a Cleveland split in two at Boston, or by (2) getting no more than a split with the Yanks should the Indians drop a pair to the Red Sox.

Yanks Still Seventh

The Yankees, although winning four of their last six, are in seventh place, five games out of first and two games out of last. Should they drop two to the White Sox while Detroit sweeps a pair at Baltimore, the champs would replace the Tigers at the bottom.

The White Sox extended their longest winning streak of the year with a 14-6 romp at Boston Thursday as Early Wynn, won his 25th.

Kansas City ended its losing string at six by beating Baltimore 2-1. Detroit defeated Washington 4-2.

Wynn, 39, gave way in the fifth inning at Boston, giving up 10 hits and all six Red Sox runs. But he struck out seven and had a three-hit shutout for five frames.

The White Sox pounded loser Billy Hoef (1-3) and three relievers for 19 hits, including home runs by Earl Torgeson, Del Ennis and Jim Landis while scoring in eight innings. That tied the AL scoring record for a nine-inning game, a feat last accomplished 10 years ago — by the White Sox against Boston. Cleveland, New York and Boston also have done it.

Ned Garver and winning reliever Bud Daley (1-2) turned back the Orioles on four hits. The A's got a second-inning run on Roger Maris' eighth-homer and then cracked the tie in the seventh against Billy O'Dell (1-2).

Eddie Yost and Al Kaline homered for the Tigers in support of a four-hitter by Jim Bunning (3-3). Hal Griggs was the loser for a 2-1 record.

Warriors Ambushed 7-0 By Hanover Nighthawks Who Take SP League Title

Hanover High sewed up the 1959 championship of the South Penn Baseball League by blanking the Gettysburg High Warriors 7-0 at Hanover Thursday afternoon.

Chambersburg, only team with a chance of tying the Hawks, will not make up a postponed game, according to a previous announcement.

Dick Hamm, Nighthawk hurler, limited the Jones-men to but two singles and turned back an even dozen via the strikeout route. Gary Maitland pitched the first five innings for the Warriors and all seven runs, Don Coldsmith hurled the sixth inning and escaped unscathed.

Both teams were ragged in the field, the Warriors being charged with six bobbles and Hanover with five.

Hanover scored twice in the first inning. With one out Arno Becker walked. After George Stetter fanned, Jim Heilman was safe on an infield error and Marlin Dutterer punched a single to score both runners.

Stetter led off the third inning with a homerun and the Hawks added two more on a pair of errors, walk to Ray Wilson and another miscue.

Singles by Ralph Dusman and Stetter produced another Hanover run in the fourth. The final run in the sixth resulted on a walk, error and an infield out. Gettysburg's hits came off the bats of Gary Maitland in the third and Terry Fox in the seventh.

An oddity took place in the top of the fifth with two out. Gary Maitland fanned but the catcher missed the ball. Nighthawk players raced to the bench thinking the inning was over while Maitland circled the bases and reached third base before the players realized what was taking place. Bernie Lockbaum popped out to end the frame.

Finish Next Week
The Warriors, 4-6, play at Boiling Springs next Wednesday and meet Hanover here in a return game Thursday to end their season.

Wall Holds Four Stroke Golf Lead

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., today carried a whopping four-stroke lead into the second round of the $22,000 Hot Spring Open Golf Tournament.

Wall tied the competitive course record and posted the low competitive total of his own career Thursday with a blistering 63 over the 7,011-yard Arlington Country Club layout.

The nine-under-par tally gave him a healthy margin over Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif.; Jim Ferree of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Buddy Sullivan of Yuba City, Calif.; and Wes Ellis Jr., of Adersess, N. J., who were bunched in the second place at 67.

Defending champion Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., finished with 72. Cary Middlecoff of Hollywood, Fla., co-favorite with Wall, had 71.

BREAKSGROUND FOR CULTURAL CENTER IN N. Y.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower broke ground Thursday for a 75-million-dollar cultural center and predicted it will be a mighty influence for world peace.

The President took part in ceremonies marking the start of the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. He flew from Washington for the occasion.

The President's plane landed at the nearby Newark, N.J., airport and Eisenhower motored to New York after an airport greeting from Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and others.

A 33-man motorcycle escort ushered the President's car into Manhattan by way of the Lincoln Tunnel under the Hudson River. Eisenhower stood up in a bubble-top limousine and waved to about 300 persons lined up near the tunnel exit.

Has Busy Day
He responded in similar fashion to other greetings from citizens as his car proceeded across town.

The ground breaking at the cultural center was just one of the activities which will keep the President buzzing busily about Manhattan during the day and into the night.

In his talk Eisenhower said the center—which will include a new Metropolitan Opera House and a new home for the New York Philharmonic—will enrich the lives of people generally.

"True Exchange"
He added: "The beneficial influence of this great cultural adventure will not be limited to our own borders. Here will occur a true exchange of the fruits of national cultures."

"From this will develop a growth that will spread to the corners of the earth, bringing with it a kind of human message that only individuals—not governments—can transmit."

"Here will develop a mighty influence for peace and understand-

FBI Capture One Of Its Wanted Men

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — A nationwide search for Emmett Bernard Kervan, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men, ended Wednesday night with his arrest in a garage apartment here.

The 51-year-old Kervan, unarmed and clad in pajamas, didn't resist FBI agents.

Kervan had been sought in connection with the holdup of the East Norwalk, Conn., branch of the Merchants Bank and Trust Co. last Feb. 5. A gunman robbed the bank of $29,445.

FBI Agent Francis Crosby said Kervan apparently arrived in El Paso late in February and rented the garage apartment late in March.

ing throughout the world."

The site of the center, an area of three and a half blocks on 64th street west of Broadway, was cleared of run-down dwellings and other buildings for the huge construction project to be completed in 1963.

"Cooperative Venture"
Eisenhower said the center symbolizes not only an increasing interest in America in cultural matters, but also is "a stimulating approach to one of the nation's pressing problems: urban blight."

"It is a cooperative venture in which federal and local government, artistic groups, large foundations and private citizens are joining forces," he said.

The President noted, too, that Fordham University is planning a new campus and buildings adjacent to the cultural center.

"All of us salute this magnificent effort," Eisenhower added.

After the ground breaking ceremony Eisenhower went to the New York Coliseum to look over displays in the international show of export goods from 63 countries.

At the fair, exhibiting nations presented him with a truckload of exotic gifts.

FEARED RAPE; STOPS TRAIN; 28 INJURED

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman, who said a youth tried to rape her, pulled the emergency cord on a subway train Wednesday night and halted it. Another train ran into it. Twenty-eight persons were hurt, none seriously.

Lucille Lo Bianco, 43, said a blond youth about 17 years old entered a car in which she and an elderly man were seated. She said the youth ripped off her skirt and tried to tear away her undergarments.

She screamed. She said the elderly man covered in terror. At the next stop, Mrs. Lo Bianco said, she tried to get off the train but was hauled back by the youth.

Fighting free as the train pulled away from the station, she pulled the emergency signal.

As the train ground to a halt,

Denies Shooting A Fellow Student

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — A Pennsylvania State University freshman has pleaded innocent to charges of shooting a fellow student in the leg at a private party early Sunday morning.

James R. Byers, 20, of State College, was charged with aggravated assault and battery and assault with intent to maim Wednesday before Guy G. Mills, justice of the peace. Byers was freed on $2,000 bail.

Byers is accused of shooting James S. Graham, 20, of Pittsburgh, who was reported in good condition Thursday at the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte.

another train, its brakes on, skidded into the first one. Some 150 persons were thrown from their seats. Fourteen were treated at the scene and 14 were taken to Coney Island Hospital.

The woman's attacker fled.

Subway traffic on the line was disrupted for an hour. The collision occurred in Brooklyn.

SEX MANIAC ADMITS BRUTAL MURDER OF BOY

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — A convicted sexdeviate held in a state mental institution has admitted, police said, the kidnapping and brutal slaying of Ben Wagner, 6, whose battered body was found in a roadside ditch nearly six weeks ago.

Booked Thursday on a charge of first-degree murder was Harold W. McLaughlin, 28, who once was cleared of any connection with the case.

"He ran out of the car and I chased him," Detective Inspector Rudolph Glaser quoted McLaughlin as saying. "I caught him and held him with one arm and stabbed him three times with the knife I always carried in the car. He screamed and tried to fight me."

Lured Into Car

Ben, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wagner, was on the way with a young companion to buy ice cream for Ben's three sisters when he was lured into the car Saturday night, April 4. His body was found the next day in a ditch along a rural road 15 miles north of here.

"I just left the body there," McLaughlin told Glaser. "I drove away and then threw the knife away."

"I went to church a week later," McLaughlin said. "I bought a candle for a dollar because it would burn for a week. I lit it for him because I killed him."

Is Feeble-minded

McLaughlin, who had undergone treatment in a state institution in 1954, was recommitted last month

Find Fifth Youth Guilty Of Murder

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Nineteen-year-old Harold Johnson became the fifth youth convicted in the murder of In-Ho Oh, Korean graduate student at the University of Pennsylvania.

A jury of seven women and five men Wednesday night convicted Johnson and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment. Of the previous four convicted in the fatal beating, April 25, 1958, one is under penalty of death, two received life terms, and the fourth got 10-20 years.

DIES OF CANCER

PARIS (AP) — Sidney Bechet, 68, famous jazz musician who came up from New Orleans to international prominence in the world of hot music, died Thursday.

Death was caused by cancer. Bechet had been in failing health for some time and declined rapidly the past few days.

He died at his home in Garches, a Paris suburb.

after he was accused in a disorderly conduct warrant of luring a 5-year-old boy into his car a week before Ben was kidnapped. The younger boy was released unharmed when his friends began to shout. Psychiatrists told the court McLaughlin was feeble minded.

The first break in the case came when a hunting knife was found 600 feet from where Ben's body was discovered. Tests showed it was stained with blood and held fibers matching those in the clothing Ben wore.

Last Saturday, a knife sheath was found about half a mile from the ditch that held Ben's body. It carried the faint initials, "H. W. M."—The same as McLaughlin's.

KING STARTS 17-DAY TOUR

WASHINGTON (AP)—King Baudouin of Belgium, ending a three-day state visit here, left Thursday on a 17-day tour of the United States.

His first stop was Detroit. Foreign and American diplomats were at the airport here to see him off.

Baudouin wore a gray double-breasted suit rather than the general's uniform he was wearing when he arrived three days ago. He had a friendly word for everyone in a long reception line between the reviewing platform and the plane.

He expressed his wish to say goodbye to the chauffeurs, the Secret Service men and members of his motorcycle escort. Officials quickly lined up six drivers, three detectives and two policemen who formed the motorcycle escort during his stay in Washington. Baudouin, with a friendly smile, shook hands and expressed his thanks for their service.

Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon said farewell to the King in the name of President Eisenhower who had left Washington 45 minutes earlier for New York.

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru Thursday jibed at Red China's claim that Tibetan refugees who have fled to India are only "upper strata reactionaries."

Nehru told a news conference that 12,000 Tibetans have now crossed into India or the buffer states of Sikkim and Bhutan. He said it was obvious that among so large a number, there must be a large representation of the so-called common man.

EX-ARMY MAN SAVES DOG FOR NAVY FAMILY

CHICAGO (AP) — An ex-Army man completed a 40-mile mission on land which the Navy and Coast Guard were unable to do on water and brought much joy to a Navy man and his family.

Tom Berg, 68, agent for the Anti-Cruelty Society, drove 40 miles to return a lost dog to Chief Petty Officer Walter Seabock of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

It was a toss-up which was happiest when Berg arrived with Seabock's 3-year-old cocker spaniel, Penny—Seabock's wife and four small children, or the dog.

Left In A Baggage Room

The Seabocks had just about given up hope of finding Penny. Mrs. Seabock and the children, ages 2 through 11, arrived in Chicago by train with Penny last weekend from Seattle, to join Seabock at his new post. They left Penny in the Union Station baggage room, planning to have the dog shipped to the Seabocks' new home. But the new home wasn't ready.

Penny was in the baggage room four days. Attendants fed, walked and watered Penny but finally turned her over to the Anti-Cruelty Society.

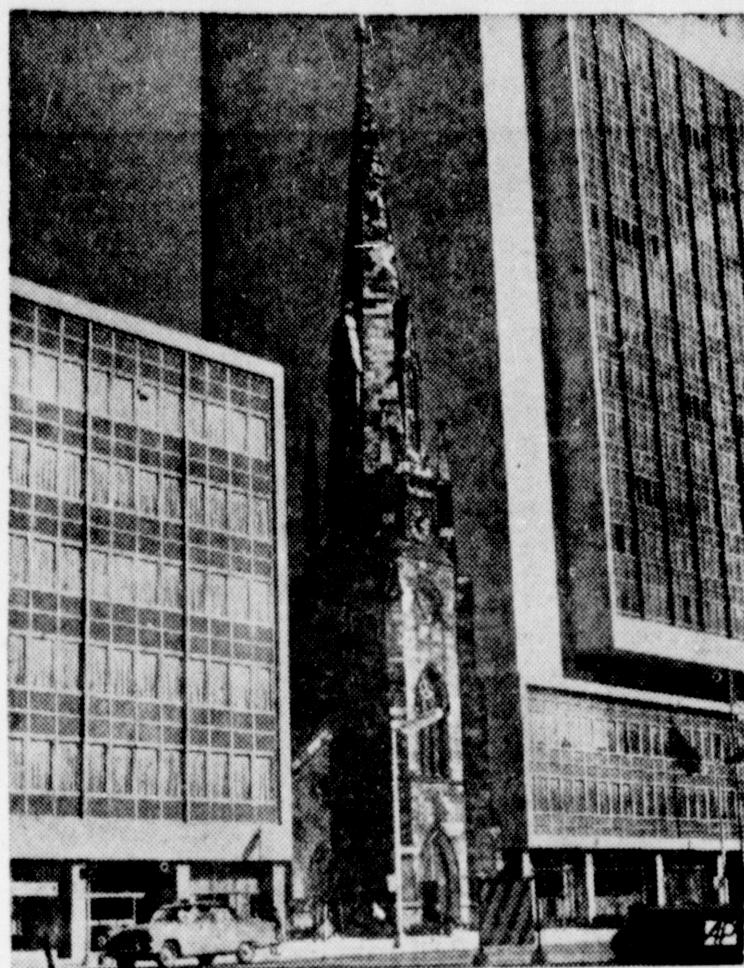

Mrs. Seabock telephoned the society Wednesday and learned Penny had been turned in as an apparently lost dog.

Army To Rescue

Director J. J. Shaffer told her Penny couldn't take another railroad trip. The Seabocks have no car. Shaffer called the Coast Guard. They had no boat going that way. He phoned Navy intelligence. No help. He contacted the training center. They couldn't help.

Berg, a humane agent for 40 years, who had completed his work shift for the day, volunteered his services.

"I'd help a service man and a dog any day," he told Shaffer. "I'll drive Penny to Waukegan in my car."

PLAN CHANGES IN BILLBOARD LEGISLATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department will draft new amendments to a bill regulating billboards on interstate highways under an agreement reached by Gov. Lawrence and the House Highways Committee chairman.

Lawrence's legislative secretary Roy A. Schafer, said the decision was reached Wednesday by Lawrence and Rep. Harry J. Comer (D-Phila.).

The agreement came shortly after Lawrence complained at his news conference that lobbyists had wrecked the legislation through amendments. Some of the amendments were written by Comer.

"He was very cooperative about it," Schafer said. "Actually, the amendments he (Comer) made weren't as far wrong as most people think."

"Destroyed Intent"

Sponsors had protested that the changes had practically destroyed the bill's intent.

The federal government has offered to boost by one-half per cent its aid for constructing interstate highways to states which ban billboards along the roads. Under the present setup, the federal government pays 90 per cent and the state the balance of construction costs.

Most of the difficulty in drafting the measure has centered on federal provisions exempting urban and other highly developed areas from such controls. In other areas the government requires that no billboards be built within 660 feet of the highways.

Postmaster Gets 5 Years Probation

HARRISBURG (AP) — The former postmaster of Pillow was placed on five years probation in U.S. District Court here on charges of embezzlement.

Charles M. Kopenhaver, 30, pleaded guilty last week to taking $3,517 in C.O.D. funds and merchandise.

In passing sentence Wednesday, Judge Frederick V. Follmer, said he put Kopenhaver on probation because he has "already suffered" in losing his $3,200 a year job as postmaster and "some self respect."

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II has appointed a Negro to the staff of Buckingham Palace for the first time.

Joseph Bennet Odunton, 38, from Ghana, starts work as assistant press attache Tuesday. He will help the Queen during her tour in Ghana next November.

Allen Weikert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins and family, of Oxford, visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Steinberger.

Want Quick Action On Absentee Voting

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania League of Women Voters wants quick legislative action on a plan to establish what it calls "an effective absentee voting law."

The league voted unanimously Wednesday to endorse the proposal, noting that "persons unavoidably absent from their county on election day should be entitled to the privilege of voting."

But the league cautioned that any such legislation should guard against fraudulent balloting.

At its convention here, the league heard Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of Pennsylvania State University, urge support for a statewide network of two-year junior colleges in order to provide facilities for the mounting college-age population.

Two Are Indicted On Felony Charges

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Daniel Diorio, president of the Universal Seafood Co., and Noel Lo Castro, a foreman for the firm, were indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury on felony and misdemeanor charges in the distribution of poisoned fish.

An investigation started March 25 when flounder allegedly treated with poison sodium nitrite killed three-year-old Dale Kleinschmidt of Haddon Heights, N.J. Hundreds of people in the greater Philadelphia area complained of illness. The chemical is sometimes used to preserve meat, but is not allowed for fish.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Culen Ganey set bail of $1,000 for Diorio and $500 for Lo Castro.

A coot is an aquatic bird principally in South America.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

GOP BATTLE FOR MAYOR IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia voters choose Democratic and Republican candidates for mayor in Tuesday's municipal primary election. Only on the GOP side is there a fight.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth, 60-year-old lawyer, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination. Generally, he has been politically silent, apparently waiting for the fall election battle.

On the Republican side, the organization choice is Harold Stassen, also a lawyer, who likes nothing better than a free-ranging political campaign.

Two Opponents

Stassen, 52, is opposed by two independents who are expected to poll a small percentage of the total Republican vote. They are Joseph A. Schafer and Ralph C. Morone, both GOP committeemen.

Stassen has had a long career in public service. He was governor of Minnesota nearly 20 years ago. After coming to Pennsylvania, he served as president of the university of Pennsylvania, then sought unsuccessfully to get the Republican presidential nomination. Last year he backed the GOP organization choice for the gubernatorial nomination, and lost.

Before entering the 1958 governorship primary, Stassen served as President Eisenhower's advisor on disarmament.

Dilworth, teamed with Joseph Clark whom he succeeded as mayor, helped turn the Republicans out of Philadelphia's City Hall in 1951 after 67 years of GOP entrenchment.

When Clark refused to seek reelection, looking ahead to the U. S. Senate seat which he won in 1956, Dilworth became the Democratic choice. He had been district attorney under Clark.

Stassen has made more than 30 speeches and has issued at least that many statements since his slating nearly two months ago. Dilworth, on the other hand, has confined his political appearances to strictly Democratic party gatherings. He has attended about 10 ward committee meetings and intends to visit the remaining 49 before the end of the summer.

LAWYERS WILL DEFEND DIXIE

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP) — Attorneys from five states have offered to defend Dixie Ann Gottfried, 30, a former beauty contest winner charged with armed robbery.

The charges were filed in Arapahoe County District Court Thursday. They stem from a drug-store robbery in which $131 in cash and narcotics were taken.

Seek Lost Dog For Injured Man

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Charles Rosebrook was driving his truck through Jackson last April when his dog, Spotty, jumped from the cab at a stop and failed to return.

Rosebrook, 53, was injured in an accident a few days later and now is in a Marion, Ohio, hospital. The doctors say he keeps calling for his lost dog.

They ask that if anyone knows where Spotty, an English setter, is to let them know. They say Spotty could help Rosebrook recover.

GOP PREPS FOR CHICAGO CONVENTION

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1960 Republican National Convention in Chicago will have 1,325 delegates with one vote each under a tentative apportionment worked out by the party's national committee.

This is just two more than the 1956 convention roster. It was computed on the basis of rules adopted at the last convention.

The 1960 total could be increased by 6 to 1,331 if Hawaii, treated as a state in the computation, elects a Republican senator or governor in its first state election next July 28.

Nominations at the national convention are by majority.

Democrats will not determine their 1960 convention strength until next fall. Their national committee is authorized to fix the basis of the apportionment, in contrast to the Republicans who must use a formula worked out by the last national convention.

How Allocated
Here's the way the Republicans are allocating to each state delegates to their 1960 convention:

Delegates at large: 4 (2 for each senator); 2 for each representative at large, 6 bonus delegates for each state casting a majority for the GOP candidate for president in 1956 or, failing that, electing a Republican senator or governor then or in a later election.

District delegates: 1 from each congressional district casting at least 2,000 votes for the Republican nominee for president in 1956 or for the Republican candidate for Congress in the last preceding congressional election; 1 additional delegate for each district casting at least 10,000 votes for the same candidates as above.

named a local attorney to defend Mrs. Gottfried.

Bill Maragoss, chief investigator for the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office, said attorneys from Baton Rouge, La., Chicago, New York City, Louisville, Ky., and Oklahoma City had offered to come to this Denver suburb, at their own expense, to defend Mrs. Gottfried.

She was chosen Miss Colorado Jaycee last July.

Scribe Sees Little Hope Of Success Of Conferences Between Allies And Reds

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is only realistic to expect very little from the foreign ministers meeting in Geneva or, if it is held later, from a summit meeting between President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev.

The following possibilities seem all that can be expected from all the discussions for a long time:

1. The West and the Soviet Union eventually may reach some agreement to stop nuclear weapons testing to avoid fallout dangers; and they may find some way of easing their dispute over West Berlin.

2. If the talks can continue without an explosion, there may be what diplomats like to call an easing of tensions. That's a phrase made of rubber. It could turn out to be real and helpful. It could prove to be a dangerous myth.

Prospects Not Good

Here are some reasons for not expecting sensational agreements, starting with the broadest problem — disarmament — and going on to the discussions at Geneva now among the foreign ministers of the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France.

A truly broad disarmament agreement seems out of the question for years. The West is hugely outnumbered by the Communist world in military manpower. The only thing the West has to offset the numerical superiority is nuclear weapons.

So long as the West and the Soviets retain nuclear weapons, talk of a general disarmament is more idealistic than practical. But isn't it possible the two sides may agree on banning nuclear weapons, too? Not for a long, long time.

Detect Nuclear Tests
Nuclear testing may be detected. But scientists now have no way of detecting stockpiles of nuclear weapons which a nation wants to conceal. So even if both sides agreed never to use nuclear weapons in war, this would be the result:

Neither side could feel safe about the promise unless both sides destroyed their nuclear weapon supplies. But neither side could be sure such a promise was carried out, when neither can tell whether the other cheated and has secretly stored such weapons for future use.

Both Offer Proposals

At Geneva both sides are making proposals, each with its own interests in mind.

The Soviets want the West to recognize the Communist government of East Germany as the legitimate government of that country. The West refuses.

Such recognition would suit the Soviets because it would strengthen the Communist grip on East Germany and all the other European satellites. Any hope the people in those countries still had for freedom from Red rule would be badly diminished.

But the West wants to keep hope alive in the satellite peoples. Further, the big Western powers are allied with West Germany which wants the two Germanys united and hopes such unification will mean a Germany linked with the West.

At Geneva the West unveiled a program for eventual unification, with the people of the two Germanys voting on the kind of government they want.

The West seems to have no doubt of the outcome—a government linked with the West—or it wouldn't have made such an offer.

Further, in any voting the West Germans would outnumber the East Germans by better than two to one.

Khrushchev already has said he wouldn't let Communist East Germany go capitalist. So while there may be a lot of gumbating at Geneva over the Western proposal — which the Soviets have scorned — the proposal seems doomed.

The Soviets want the Western Big Three to get their troops out of West Berlin. No wonder. That part of Berlin is 100 miles within Communist East Germany. It's the most real and advanced Western outpost inside the Communist world.

It's a constant beacon of hope for East Germans who want to flee to the West. It dispels any doubts of those East Germans that the West is standing fast against total Soviet domination of East Germany.

But the West insists, for the reasons given, plus others, that it won't pull its troops out of Berlin. And the deadlock remains.

NBC Technicians Are Voting Today

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Considering the season of the year, television networks will spread a handsome supply of special goodies before the nation's audiences over the weekend and through most of next week.

In the first place, of course, most of the wintertime regulars will turn up on schedule: Como, Allen, Sullivan and Shore as well as, most of which will not have gone into their period of reruns and repeats.

On Sunday, country music devotees will be delighted to know, an hour-long Midwestern Hayride will make its debut on NBC. The show will come from Cincinnati and Dean Richards will major domo.

Carney To Star

The "Merry Month of May," second in a series of special America Pauses, shows will be telecast by CBS Monday evening. It stars Art Carney, Marian Anderson, Carol Haney and a host of others.

Tuesday, the daytime viewers receive a special. This is the first of a CBS series presided over by actress Claudette Colbert.

Dave King, heralded as Britain's top-rated TV comedian and recording star, will debut in his own show Wednesday night on NBC when the Kraft Music Hall puts on its straw hat.

What might well be the high point in the whole TV week comes Friday when Ernie Kovacs will turn up with a special hour show, "Kovacs on Music," abetted by his spouse, singer Edie Adams on NBC.

IKE AND UNION LEADER CONFER

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower and the head of the steelworkers union met privately for half an hour Thursday.

Both White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty and David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, declared the steel industry situation was not discussed.

There was no public comment by steel industry leaders about the session, which came in the midst of contract negotiations aimed at averting a strike by 500,000 workers when contracts expire in the basic steel industry June 30.

McDonald said at a news conference that he went to Eisenhower's hotel suite to pay his respects to the President, who was in the city for a round of activities.

Eisenhower has been urging show economic statesmanship in their negotiations and avoid any new wage-price inflationary spiral.

Before meeting with Eisenhower, McDonald participated in the contract negotiations between teams representing the union and the 12 largest steel companies.

QUIP SPICES IKE'S SPEECH

NEW YORK (AP) — Turning from his speech to top scientists last night, President Eisenhower told a joke and got a big laugh from his audience.

The joke concerned a man who named his hunting dogs after members of a college faculty. When the faculty wives complained, the man named the dogs with academic ranks.

A man from Chicago rented a dog named "Instructor" for $2.50 a day. The fee for the same dog the next year was $5, the owner explaining the dog had been promoted to assistant professor.

The third year the fee was $10—the dog had become a full professor.

The President said that, in the fourth year, the man was unable to rent the dog at all because the canine had been made a college president and that all he did was "sit around and howl and bark and he ain't worth shootin'."

ATTRITION RATE HIGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury encountered a record demand for cash this week when it offered new securities to holders of $1,800,000,000 of maturing securities.

Reporting Thursday on the refinancing efforts, the department said holders of 559 million dollars worth of maturing securities elected to take cash instead of turning them in for new certificates yielding 4.05 per cent.

A total of $1,817,000,000 of 1 1/4 per cent certificates will mature today. Holders of $1,258,000,000 accepted the exchange offer.

Treasury officials said the demand for cash was within its expectations and that it would not have to borrow money to meet the demand.

What the Treasury calls the attrition rate—that is the demand for cash—in the refinancing was 31 per cent. This was second only to a 32 per cent attrition in a refinancing in May 1955.

A high attrition rate reflects an inclination by investors to put their money in other forms of investment rather than federal government securities.

Lawyer Wins Case With Glass Eye

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Attorney A. A. Semaan, defending a salesman accused of drunken driving, heard a policeman say Thursday the defendant was "glassy-eyed" when arrested.

"Semaan smiled and asked, 'Would you say I was glassy-eyed, too?' The policeman said he wouldn't."

"That's funny," Semaan said. "I do have a glass eye."

The defendant was found innocent.

AWAIT OPTION ACTION MAY 26

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Will Bob Carpenter, president of the Philadelphia Phillies, buy a 62-acre site in nearby Delaware Township, N.J., that has been proposed for a new stadium?

The answer will be forthcoming May 26 when an option on the land expires. Carpenter previously bought a 12-acre plot adjacent to the site, which is near the Garden State Park Race Track.

William Stuempfig and an associate, Paul C. Yeger, took options on the land for carpenter. They have been paying $2,500 a month since last August and on March 24 took a 60-day option for $5,000.

Stuempfig announced Wednesday that he had found a purchaser for the land, but he declined to name names.

Carpenter was reported out of town and unavailable for comment as to whether he had decided to buy the land.

NEWSPAPERS ARE PUBLIC'S 'CONSCIENCE'

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of Pennsylvania State University, said today that newspapers are the public conscience of the country.

Addressing the opening session of a two-day conference of Pennsylvania newspaper editors here Walker declared:

"Newspapers, of course, are not the only mechanism we have for informing and formulating public opinion. But certainly they provide the most significant mechanism we have that is committed solely to the public welfare, rather than primarily to one or another vested interest."

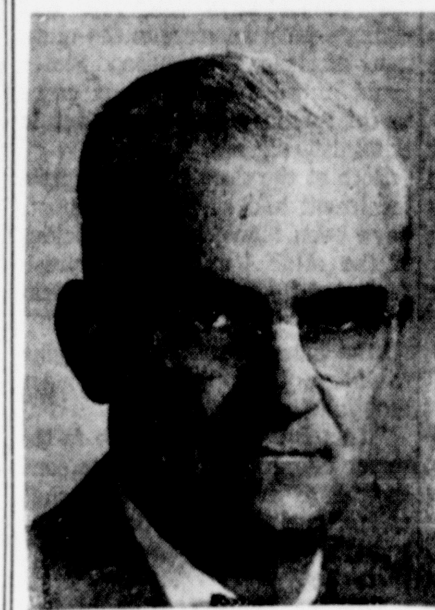

"In a very real sense, the newspapers of our country serve as the public conscience."

The editors also are scheduled to hear talks during the conference by:

Carl E. Lindstrom, visiting professor of journalism at the University of Michigan and former executive editor of the Hartford, Conn., Times; Marie Torre, TV columnist for the New York Herald Tribune; George N. Scheid, advertising director of the Tarentum Valley Daily News, and Atty. Carl L. Shipley, Washington, D. C., a noted authority on libel laws.

Mayor Christian Weber, who was re-elected Tuesday, said he would reconsider previous opposition to an authority building the stadium if the community got financial guarantees.

The Strike At Charmian

The United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers Union called a strike at our Charmian Plant on Thursday, May 14, 1959. The Union was certified as the bargaining agent at this plant on February 5, 1959, following an election.

55 employees voted for the Union and 40 against the Union.

Our company, by letters to employees before the election, advised all employees that if the Union received a majority at the election and became the bargaining agent, it would likely call a strike, and our prediction has now come true.

Company representatives have held 11 meetings with the Union, trying to make a contract. The Union demands are:—

(1) UNION SHOP. If the Company agreed to a Union Shop, then it would be forced to discharge all employees who did not join the Union. We do not believe this is fair and, furthermore, it is un-American in principle.

(2) MANAGEMENT CLAUSE. The Union is demanding the right to control many functions of management and the Company refuses to permit the Union to have control of the men working at the Plant.

(3) WAGES. The Union's wage demand has been so exorbitant and ridiculous that it is hard to believe that our employees understand the facts. The Union's demand amounts to more than $1.00 per hour more than current wage rates.

More than 20 employees came through the picket line yesterday and are working at the Plant. We expect additional employees will report each day. The Plant will be open and all employees reporting will be given work.

The Union has rights, which we respect, and will continue to do so. We do not expect to surrender to force and violence. Employees who desire to work at our Plant will be given protection. This is a free country and each employee has a right to decide for himself whether to work or stay away from the Plant.

CAN MAKE MAN TO ORDER BY DIET CONTROL

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Human nutrition has reached the point where experts feel, that by controlled feeding, a population can be matured earlier, enjoy a longer prime of life, or extend its actual longevity.

But which of these three goals does a society want?

"They are quite different things," pointed out Dr. Robert S. Goodhart, scientific director of the National Vitamin Foundation, a nonprofit organization.

"What is optimal nutrition? It depends on what you want."

Is Want Armies?

If we and the Russians are engaged in trying to build up big armies, we can do this by maturing our youths faster, but they'll be dying of coronary attacks and other degenerative diseases in their 40s and 50s.

"The earlier an animal matures the earlier it dies."

Dr. Goodhart said it would be possible to add potential years to a child's life by keeping him thin and small and postponing the development of his maturity as long as possible. But the price would be a lowered vitality.

Would Be Useless

"Later I myself would probably want to take him out and shoot him, because he would be useless to society," he said.

"The idea of merely living as long as possible is, it seems to me, a lousy ambition."

Dr. Goodhart feels the average child fares best if fed a diet that allows him to mature at his own pace rather than one that spurs him into a forced growth.

Healthy Peepees

"A lot of us are concerned," he said, "about mothers who worry about the fact their child is smaller—even though he may be actually healthier—than the boy next door."

"In trying to make him grow taller by overstuffing him with calories and proteins, these mothers merely may be bringing him to his final stature."

"The question is whether forced-growing does anything more than bring on this early maturity."

Tie To Delinquency

The rise in juvenile delinquency, Dr. Goodhart says, may be, in part at least, explained by a conflict in what American society expects of its young people.

"We are feeding them diets that mature them earlier physically and mentally," he said, "but

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — One year ago Friday Vice President which he was stoned and spat upon.

There was nothing personal in the treatment he got. It was this country's southern neighbors—or some factions of them—expressing their attitude toward the United States. Nixon called at once for a reappraisal of our policy toward Latin America.

In the year that has passed what has been done to improve that policy? And what is the attitude of Latin Americans toward the United States now?

Not All Good

This country has taken a number of steps toward closer cooperation with, and more understanding of, Latin America. But the attitude of the people there toward the United States is far from all good.

Only two months ago a group of South American publishing and broadcasting executives, visiting this country, said the United States is losing friends fast in their homeland.

Very recently Associated Press correspondents in the capitals of 10 South American republics questioned students, workers, politicians, editors, businessmen and labor leaders to find out how our neighbors feel now.

No Change For Many

The answer was: almost no change. Relations with the United States in some countries have deteriorated. In others—for example, Argentina and Brazil—some improvement was noted.

But the 10 correspondents reported that the great masses of the people have not felt any change. Most answers to the question of how the United States could improve the situation came to this: money and more tact in administering aid.

Both at the time of Nixon's mistreatment and since, Communists have been blamed as the nucleus of the attacks on the vice president and the continuing anti-United States feeling there.

The charge that the United States has played too cozy with Latin American dictators has been thrown at this country often. Nixon was aware of it on his trip. So was President Eisenhower's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, who visited Latin America after Nixon's trip.

Both came back recommending a much stiffer American attitude toward dictators.

Here are things the United States has done in the past year to improve the situation:

Differing Points Of View

The Eisenhower administration has backed and will approve the billion dollar Inter-American Development Bank to make loans in Latin America alone; it has asked and backed increases in the capital of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund from which Latin American nations as well as others benefit.

The administration is asking Congress for a 25 per cent increase in technical assistance funds for Latin America in 1960; the U.S. Development Loan Fund is stepping up its credits to Latin American nations; and moves are under way to encourage further the already big flow of U.S. private investments into Latin America.

These actions, if carried through, may seem plentiful to a U.S. citizen. To a Latin American, then still may seem too little.

Taneytown GROUPS HONOR MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Mother and daughter banquets were held under the sponsorship of two Taneytown churches. There were 84 persons present at Miller's Restaurant, Westminster, Tuesday for the mother-daughter banquet of the Women of the United Church of Christ. Mrs. Marion Rue was toastmistress.

Mrs. Morgan Andreas spoke on mother and daughter love. The program also included group singing, led by Miss Margaret Shreve and accompanied by Mrs. George Motter; songs by Marianne Motter, Joan Clingan and David Reifsnider, a reading by Martha Harmon and a recitation by Elaine Martin.

Prizes were given Mrs. Jacob Stambaugh, oldest mother present; Mrs. Elwood Myers, youngest; and Mrs. Mary Baker, mother with most daughters present.

The United Lutheran Church Men served the meal for the 180 mothers and daughters who attended the banquet Tuesday evening in Trinity Lutheran Church.

The program was planned by the Mite Society and included a solo by Miss Jane Gills; a number by Wayne Wilhite, David Nail and Carrol Crum, accompanied by Billy Fornwalt, on the clarinet, and Miss Hazel Hess, at the piano; a humorous reading by Mrs. Gilbert Stine; songs by the youth choir and the showing of slides of the 1959 Tournament of Roses parade by Mr. and Mrs. Merle Ohler.

Another phase of the entertainment was that enjoyed by the amused as the men struggled with the problem of serving and later cleaning the dishes.

In charge of the event were Elwood Harner, tables; Kenneth Smith, table setting; George Naylor, waiters; Fred Garner, food distribution; Harry Dougherty Jr., dessert; Stanley King, coffee; Marcus Baker, dishwashing, and Herbert Bowers, gifts.

Organ music during the dinner was by Delmar Riffe. The invocation was by Mrs. Stanley Jennings, James Fair, president of the ULCM, welcomed the ladies and the Rev. Mr. Jennings, pastor, spoke briefly.

Open Fisherman's Paradise Friday

BELLEFONTAINE, Pa. (AP) — Anglers with a yen for king size trout take note.

The State Fish Commission opened Fisherman's Paradise on Spring Creek near here today for the 25th season. The stream has been stocked with large trout to please the some 43,000 sportsmen expected to fish the area until the end of the trout season.

Fishing hours on the creek are from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Only artificial lures are allowed on the stream.

William Voigt Jr., the commission's executive director, said Wednesday that fishing on opening day was not good because of a road construction project up stream which has muddied stream waters.

Integrated Housing Laws Are Opposed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Greater Pittsburgh Board of Realtors has released a survey indicating that Allegheny County voters oppose integrated housing laws four to one.

The group said Thursday the survey indicated more than 80 per cent of voters in third-class cities, boroughs and townships oppose a House bill designed to enforce integrated housing in Pennsylvania. The survey indicated that 73.8 per cent of Pittsburgh voters are against the bill.

A public relations firm conducted the survey, mailing questionnaires to more than 18,000 of the some 815,000 voters in the county.

Lawrence Says Eagen Experienced

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Gov. Lawrence says Judge Michael J. Eagen of Lackawanna County, Democratic organization choice for the State Supreme Court, has more judicial experience than his primary election foe, incumbent Justice Thomas D. McBride.

Lawrence told the closing Allegheny County Democratic organization rally Thursday night:

"Judge Eagen has dutifully performed the elementary function of any true liberal and believer in human rights. He has voted at election time, something his opponent in this primary election failed to do for many years between 1952 and 1958."

McBride, who was appointed by former Gov. Leader, is seeking nomination on both the Democratic and the Republican tickets. Neither party has endorsed him.

VIENNA (AP) — The vanguard of some 250,000 Sudeten Germans invaded Vienna today in preparation for a four-day rally that has raised the threat of Communist-inspired disorder.

Led by the Czechoslovak government, the Communists have protested the holding in neutral Austria of the annual convention of representatives of the three million Germans expelled from Czechoslovakia after World War II. The Sudetens formed the Fifth Column spearhead for Hitler's annexation of that country. The convention opens Saturday.

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The newspaper Tribune said today that Soviet Ambassador Alexi Shiborin, who has had a stormy month in Rangoon, has been recalled to Moscow. The Tribune gave no source for its information.

Soviet-Burmese relations fell to a low point when Col. Mikhail Strygunov, military attaché at the embassy, was hustled out of Rangoon on a Communist airliner May 3. Several Burmese newsmen were roughed up by embassy personnel to prevent questioning of the attaché, who apparently tried to get political asylum here after a suicide attempt.

World Briefs

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A Chinese Nationalist news agency reported today that two divisions of Soviet troops arrived last week in Red China's Sinkiang Province bordering Tibet.

The Tatoo Agency, operated by the Justice ministry, claimed its information came from underground agents in Shanghai.

The agency said the Chinese Communists invited the Soviets to send the divisions — one infantry, the other Cossack cavalry — to help cope with any big uprising that might break out.

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro Jr., 9-year-old son of Cuba's revolutionary prime minister, was under observation of doctors today as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident. The first examination, however, indicated the boy was not seriously hurt.

The child suffered painful body contusions.

Prime Minister Castro rushed to the hospital to see his son, then kept an appointment to participate in a 2 1/2-hour television interview.

VIENNA (AP) — The vanguard of some 250,000 Sudeten Germans invaded Vienna today in preparation for a four-day rally that has raised the threat of Communist-inspired disorder.

Led by the Czechoslovak government, the Communists have protested the holding in neutral Austria of the annual convention of representatives of the three million Germans expelled from Czechoslovakia after World War II. The Sudetens formed the Fifth Column spearhead for Hitler's annexation of that country. The convention opens Saturday.

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The newspaper Tribune said today that Soviet Ambassador Alexi Shiborin, who has had a stormy month in Rangoon, has been recalled to Moscow. The Tribune gave no source for its information.

Soviet-Burmese relations fell to a low point when Col. Mikhail Strygunov, military attaché at the embassy, was hustled out of Rangoon on a Communist airliner May 3. Several Burmese newsmen were roughed up by embassy personnel to prevent questioning of the attaché, who apparently tried to get political asylum here after a suicide attempt.

Air Force Clears Way To Nuclear Powered Airplane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force said today it has hurdled the last major obstacle to development of a nuclear powered airplane, that of efficient shielding from radiation.

Lt. Gen. Roscoe C. Wilson, deputy chief of staff for development, told the Aviation Writers Assn. that "we therefore are now embarked on a program to produce a subsonic nuclear powered airplane which will be the prototype of a future weapon system."

Wilson did not say when such a prototype, or experimental model actually would be built and ready for testing. Development of a new plane normally takes a number of years.

Airborne Shields

"The shielding problem for nuclear airplanes has been solved. We know how to design effective airborne shields and how to predict their performance."

Wilson said a nuclear airplane would not necessarily be any larger than the current B52 heavy bomber. It also will be designed to operate off the same runway length as the B52.

He said a nuclear bomber would be able to cruise anywhere in the world, and would be capable of launching long-range ballistic missiles as well as handling nuclear bombs and short-range missiles.

Wilson said two types of nuclear power plants are being developed, the direct air cycle and the indirect liquid metal cycle.

Developed By GE

In the direct cycle, the air flows from the engine intake through the compressor and directly through the reactor, where it is heated, expanded through the turbine, and flows out as a jet stream.

In the indirect cycle the reactor heats a liquid metal which flows through a closed system. The air is heated by passing through a heat exchanger.

The direct cycle turbojet system is being developed by General Electric Co. at Evendale, Ohio, and at the National Reactor Testing Station in Idaho.

Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Co. is developing the longer range indirect cycle program at Middletown, Conn.

Convair Division of General Dynamics, Fort Worth, Tex., has been awarded a design study for the experimental airplane that will use the nuclear power.

RECOMMENDS COVER SPRAY FOR APPLES

A first cover spray was recommended to county apple growers today by County Agent Frank S. Zettle in the fifth spray information letter of the series.

Zettle noted, "These insects are active: Red-banded leaf roller, curculio leaf miner and mites. Codling moth adults are starting to emerge. Apple scab was found on the foliage in late April in some orchards and more infections have occurred during recent rains. Spores are still being discharged from old ground leaves. Thus, scab control is important at this time. Powdery mildew is active on susceptible varieties."

The spray formulas listed in the letter are to be applied eight to ten days since petal fall spray was started.

Zettle tells growers the materials given are from Schedule "A" in the Apple and Peach schedules for 1959. Growers following the Captain-Guthion (Schule C) will use the materials listed on page 24.

Formulas Given

The following materials are to be used in each 100 gallons of spray fungicide (two formulas are given) plus either of the three insecticide formulas listed: Fungicides: Glyodin, one quart dilute or three quarts concentrate; or Captan 50 per cent WP, two pounds dilute or six pounds concentrate, plus either insecticide: (1) Parathion 15 per cent WP one pound dilute, three pounds concentrate and Dieldrin, 50 per cent WP, 1/4 pound dilute or 3/4 pound concentrate; (2) Guthion 25 per cent WP, 1/2 pound dilute or 1 1/2 pounds concentrate; (3) Malathion 25 per cent WP, two pounds dilute or six pounds concentrate and Dieldrin 50 per cent WP, 1/4 pound dilute or 3/4 pound concentrate.

Where rusts are a major problem add zineb or ferbam, one-half pound dilute or 1 1/2 pounds concentrate to the fungicide. When using the first insecticide formula, Zettle cautions, "do not use parathion on McIntosh and related varieties. Guthion or malathion may be used on any variety."

First national presidential nominating convention in the U. S. was held in Baltimore in 1831.

Plan New Missile To Confuse Enemy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A missile that unfolds its wings to fly may be used aboard a new version of the B52 heavy jet bomber to confuse the enemy, Boeing Airplane Co. said Thursday.

The missile, the McDonnell Quail, is 10 feet long, resembles a midjet pilotless airplane. But ert T. Heckenluber, Arendtsville, and C. Jean and Richard A. Slaybaugh, Biglerville R. 1, sold to Robert T. and Mildred M. Heckenluber a property in Arendtsville for $8,000.

when the bomber launches the missile the Quail darts away at the same speed as the bomber. Because of techniques that are still secret, the Quail shows up on enemy radar screens as the same size as the bomber. Thus an enemy would be unable to determine whether it was a big bomber or the decoy.

"The Mating Game" Soon At Majestic

Debbie Reynolds, Tony Randall and Paul Douglas are the stars

both new construction and modernization of commercial buildings, store fronts, homes, restaurants, etc.

Attractive With Aluminum
"Since Superlite Stone is real stone its colors are permanent. It will not crack, fade or check and requires no maintenance," Schwenk pointed out.

Although Superlite Stone itself has good thermal insulation qualities, the method of application allows a quarter inch of air space between the stone and the building. This provides additional "dead air" insulation and protects against condensation.

Attractive home exteriors have been made with combinations of aluminum siding and the Superlite Stone.

of MGM's hilarious new comedy, "The Mating Game," with Fred Clark and Una Merkel also adding to the laughs in this story of a family of non-conformists who become involved in a running battle with the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue.

It opens Wednesday at the Majestic for a four-day run.

It is doubtful if the screen has ever introduced as zany and delightful a family as that composed by the Larkins, whose one-hundred-year-old Maryland farm includes a ramshackle house, an assemblage of whatnots and appliances which Pop Larkin trades for a living, and a menagerie of animals ranging from a sow, named Juliet, to mules, pigs, goats, ducks, owls and even, skunks. And in the tradition of Noah's Ark, there are two of everything, with one exception. And that's where the trouble — and laughs — start.

A good help-yourself thirst-quenching snack to leave for the refrigerator raiders is a whole pared pineapple (covered with transparent plastic film)—everyone is invited to cut a slice.

interlocking, aluminum siding in 13 beautiful colors and with more than 100 combinations of colors and styles being offered.

Have Superlite Franchise

"Jim" Schwenk, proprietor of Swank Products, says: "If you can afford to paint, you can afford to buy aluminum siding. Painting is no longer necessary after the aluminum siding is applied, for it can be cleaned readily with a garden hose."

Other popular items in aluminum are the aluminum sheet roofing for barns and aluminum chain link fences. Aluminum awnings and breezeways are on display at Swank Products with scores of ideas for colors and design.

Swank Products has been appointed a franchise dealer for Superlite Stone, the new 1-inch thick natural stone siding that lowers the cost of building, remodeling or modernizing inside or out with stone.

Stone At Easy Price

"Superlite is the answer for all who want real stone but believe they can't afford it," said Schwenk. "It's inexpensive for modernizing or remodeling. Some of the well known home builder's in this section are starting to use Superlite Stone because it has all the beauty of natural stone, which it is, yet costs no more than the cheap looking cement imitations on the market."

Mr. Schwenk explained that the exclusive method of erecting Superlite Stone does not require expensive footings and skilled labor. "It does not require any foundation. The stone is precast at the quarry in one-inch thickness in length from eight to 28 inches. Each stone is grooved top and bottom and fastened to the wall by means of a specially designed clip which is nailed to the wall. It's as easy as that and anyone who can use a hammer can put it on."

Wall Section On Display

"Because of the new method of application, Superlite Stone can be put up faster than any masonry wall. The cost of a Superlite Stone installation is in the price range of the various precast cement imitation products."

To prove that Superlite Stone has many applications for the home, inside or out, a section of one wall of the Swank display room shows a Superlite Stone panel wall of Pennsylvania Blue-stone in its variegated shades of blue, green and yellow with an occasional touch of Tennessee Crab Orchard rose which runs through shades of tan, buff, yellow and pink.

Superlite Stone is specially adaptable for interior uses such as fireplaces, room dividers and decorative walls where the weight and thickness of customary four-inch quarried stone would present problems. It has been used for

State Financing Vs. Local Effort Needs Much Study, Speaker Andrews Asserts

By FRED B. WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The responsibility of individuals and communities to share the cost of public services needs a thorough study, House Speaker H. G. Andrews said today.

"Local responsibility and individual responsibility are receding into the background," Andrews commented in an interview. "They expect the state to take over all these services and then they howl about the money being spent."

"The whole responsibility of state financing versus local effort has to be considered not only in education but in such things as hospitals. We have to determine the logical extent of state financing."

Wants Reappraisal

The Johnstown Democrat earlier this week joined Republicans in calling for a complete reappraisal of the state's public school system. He complained that the system was not really a system, but a patchwork of ideas.

Andrews and GOP House leaders complained there were too many fringe items heaped upon school districts. These items, the speaker said, should be left to the individual districts to incorporate only if they can afford them.

The former newspaperman and 10-term Democratic legislator observed that over the years "gradually, the sense of local responsibility has ceased."

"Now we need some yardstick to determine what the communities should do."

Need Readjustment
"We should know, for instance, what they should do in regard to aiding their indigent sick. State support could grow until the state is responsible for management of all of the hospitals."

"In other fields, too, I think there is a need for an adjustment of thinking, of a keener realization of local responsibility."

"People nowadays just turn naturally to the state for every need: To inspect their sanitation, to see that they get pure food, they want larger expenditures for education, the cities want us to take over more and more of their streets."

"The systems are out of joint."

WOULD OPEN STC'S TO ALL STUDENTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The presidents of the 14 state teachers colleges believe the institutions should be opened to all students in view of expected enrollment increases.

The colleges' board of presidents recommended Thursday that the programs of the state-owned schools be expanded and the word "teachers" dropped from the names.

Present law limits the operations of the colleges to the preparation of future teachers.

Made By Rohrbach

The suggestion for expanded programs beyond teacher education was made by Dr. Q. A. W. Rohrbach, Kutztown president, as the board presented recommendations to a five-member Senate committee investigating the Public Instruction Department.

Rohrbach said the expansion was needed "to meet the impending crisis" expected from mounting enrollments over the next 10 years. Pennsylvania now has a total of 120,000 college students, he said, and the estimated amount for 1969 is 180,000.

"The trend nationwide is to expanding the functions of these state-owned institutions," Rohrbach told the committee. He said the expansion would allow the schools "to perform functions for society other than teacher education as such."

Sees Junior Colleges

The Kutztown president also reported that the board favored the proposed establishment of public and private junior colleges to help meet the need for higher education.

"Such a program, if it gains any momentum, will syphon off a great number of freshmen and sophomore students and make it possible for us to furnish additional services to the upper classes," Rohrbach said.

Dr. Luke Biemderfer, Millersville president, asked that the Commonwealth increase appropriations to teachers colleges to actually provide free education or stop requiring the students to sign pledges that they will teach in Pennsylvania.

Student Costs Rising

He said students costs have been constantly rising and the colleges receive more revenue from the students than from the Commonwealth. The $144 student fee is scheduled to be raised to $200 this fall.

Biemderfer said the cost per student in the 1951-53 biennium was $433 and the state appropriation for each was $541. He reported that in estimates for the 1959-61 biennium the student cost is $523 as compared to a state appropriation of $481.

The Millersville president also proposed that the colleges be given more money for maintenance of buildings.

"Financial resources of the colleges, derived from state appropriations and fees charged to students, have never supplied funds needed to keep the buildings in a satisfactory state of repair," he said. "As a consequence, plants have steadily deteriorated and deferred maintenance accumulates and becomes increasingly costly."

UNION STRIKES MISSILE FIRM

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Union carpenters struck the missile test center here today in a contract dispute.

Pickets were set up at the north and south gates of both the center and nearby Patrick Air Force Base. Two men were at each post, carrying placards reading: "Carpenters employes on strike for higher wages."

Picketing was orderly. About 400 carpenters in Brevard County—115 of them at the Cape—are involved. The strike could affect about 5,000 of the estimated 10,000 employees at the Cape and an additional 2,000 at the air base and other construction projects in the county.

The Carpenters Union, Local 1685, is asking an unannounced pay boost retroactive to April 1, when the old contract with the contractors expired.

The contractors have offered a staggered 35-cent-an-hour wage package in a two-year pact. They insist the first 15-cent boost not be retroactive. The carpenters now average $2.85 an hour.

The strike is not expected to affect missile launchings.

Girls Got "Kick" In Smearing Art

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — "We got a kick out of it," one of the four young girls accused of smearing clay over valuable paintings and statues at the Detroit Art Institute explained.

The girls, three of them 11 and the other 13, were grabbed by a museum guard Thursday after they had spread modeling clay over the works of art.

Two of the girls were turned over to their parents and the other two were handed over to juvenile authorities.

Museum authorities gave no damage estimate immediately.

$2.85 an hour.

The strike is not expected to affect missile launchings.
